Larry Korolewicz has successfully represented clients in scores of jury and non-jury trials in commercial litigation, insurance coverage and regulatory issues, construction, products liability and health care over the past 30 years.

Besides representing manufacturers in sales and commercial disputes, Larry often represents insurance carriers by providing coverage analysis, policy review and defending matters involving all aspects of insurance fraud.

Larry regularly defends products liability lawsuits and also represents employers in wrongful discharge claims and other employment matters, complementing his other practice areas.

Being highly committed to his client's needs, Larry is known for his unwavering attention to detail and proactive approach to the handling of litigation matters. He also frequently presents training seminars and lectures to keep his clients and others abreast of the latest laws, regulations and court decisions.

Larry received his undergraduate degree from Michigan State University with honors and his juris doctorate from the University of Detroit School of Law with honors. Admitted to practice law in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern and Western Districts of Michigan, the U.S. Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals and the State of Michigan. Larry is also a member of the Grand Rapids Bar Association.
