DANIEL K. PHILLIPS ASSOCIATE

646.837.5133 | dphillips@hsgllp.com

Daniel Kalman Phillips maintains a broad litigation practice on behalf of clients ranging from individuals to multinationals, with experience in administrative, commercial, and insurance law.

Daniel received his law degree from Yale Law School, where he served as articles editor for the Yale Journal of International Law and submissions editor for the Yale Journal on Regulation. Prior to his graduate studies, Daniel worked at Navigant Consulting, Inc., where he assisted in the writing of expert reports and in the preparation of expert witnesses for deposition and trial. After graduation, Daniel began his career at HSG, then served as a law clerk to the Honorable Lee H. Rosenthal of the U.S. District for the Southern District of Texas, before returning to the firm in 2023.

During law school, Daniel was a member of the Worker and Immigrant Rights Advocacy Clinic, where, among other things, he litigated on behalf of current and former immigration detainees. He also served as a student director of the Arthur Liman Center for Public Interest Law. Daniel's pro bono work at HSG has included prosecuting a pair of pregnancy discrimination cases on behalf of a class of flight attendants and individual pilots.

Daniel holds a Ph.D. in art history from the University of Chicago and a B.A. from Stanford University.
