Mike Shuster is recognized as one of New York's leading trial lawyers. He represents and advises corporate, financial, and individual clients in complex commercial disputes involving a wide range of legal and business issues. Mike has for several years been recognized as a top litigator in Chambers USA and Benchmark Litigation, with Chambers reporting that he is the "quintessential lead trial lawyer" who "leads by example and excels not only in case strategy but in oral argument and overall court presence," and that he is "fantastic with clients, has super judgment, and has the right style and charisma for a courtroom litigator." Market sources shared with Chambers that they trust Mike's judgment "implicitly." Mike has been recognized by Benchmark Litigation as a Top 100 Trial Lawyer for 2023, 2024, and 2025 and a finalist for General Commercial Litigator of the Year for 2023, and was named to Lawdragon's 2024 500 Leading Litigators in America and 500 Leading Lawyers in America lists. He was also named a Litigation Trailblazer by The National Law Journal.

Mike currently represents, among others, Visa as a defendant in multibillion-dollar national antitrust class actions and opt-out litigation relating to network rules at the heart of the Visa system, Chubb in national coverage litigation relating to opioids, bank trustees including HSBC and U.S. Bank on claims relating to mortgage-backed securities, a hybrid electric aircraft startup on trade secret claims against Boeing, and various other clients navigating high stakes and complex disputes.

Mike has represented numerous clients in high-profile and highly contested domestic and cross-border matters across a variety of disciplines and in a multiplicity of fora, and has successfully tried cases and argued appeals in federal and state courts throughout the United States. He has extensive experience in and has secured favorable awards in arbitrations under the ICC, AAA, LCIA, JAMS, and other rules.

Before co-founding Holwell Shuster & Goldberg, Mike was a litigation partner at White & Case, where he served as Global Head of Commercial Litigation, and at Kasowitz, Benson.
