

SAMUEL H. FINN ASSOCIATE

646.837.8397 | sfinn@hsgllp.com

Samuel Finn advises corporations and individuals on a wide range of litigation matters, with particular experience in contractual, employment, and civil rights issues.

Before joining Holwell Shuster & Goldberg, Samuel served as a law clerk for Senior Judge Carlos Lucero of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 10th Circuit. His experience in private practice includes cross-border contract disputes as well as workplace discrimination claims and whistleblower suits. He has written on the federal preemption of #MeToo-inspired legislation.

While in law school, Samuel interned with the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law and the National Student Legal Defense Network. Previously, he served as a policy intern on the campaign supporting Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer's successful run for governor in 2018.
