

THE NATIONAL LAW JOURNAL NAMES DORIT UNGAR BLACK A LITIGATION TRAILBLAZER

09.04.2019

New York—HSG co-founding partner Dorit Ungar Black has been named one of only 31 Litigation Trailblazers by The National Law Journal. Her profile is available here.

As a co-founder of HSG, Dorit has helped establish the firm as one of the nation's preeminent litigation boutiques. Among other successes, she recently helped secure a $2.4 billion award against Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. over its sale of tens of thousands of toxic home loans before the investment bank imploded at the outset of the financial crisis. Currently, Dorit represents affiliates of the government-owned investment fund AIMCo, and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as securities intermediary, in innovative, multimillion-dollar litigation against insurance carriers concerning improper Cost of Insurance rate increases.

Dorit is the fourth HSG partner to be named a Litigation Trailblazer. HSG's three other co-founding partners – Hon. Richard Holwell, Michael Shuster, and Daniel Goldberg – have been previously recognized on the list.
