For the third year in a row, and the fourth year since its founding, Holwell Shuster & Goldberg LLP has been named Benchmark Litigation's New York Law Firm of the Year.

Touted by clients and peers for its “client service, talent, bench strength, advocacy, professionalism and strategy,” over the last year, HSG continued to demonstrate the strength of its practice through numerous successes, including: a unanimous victory at the U.S. Supreme Court; a “landmark decision” (Wall Street Journal) in a closely-watched victory in the Fifth Circuit on behalf of a group of lenders challenging a controversial restructuring; and a series of key wins for a major insurer on various high-profile coverage matters, including in opioid coverage litigation and in a dispute with Meta concerning social-media addiction lawsuits. HSG also won a $125 million judgment against Walmart after a jury trial in the company's home state of Arkansas, and a substantial jury verdict in another industrial giant's backyard—for aerospace startup Zunum in a trade secrets case against Boeing in federal court in Seattle, with the Ninth Circuit reinstating the verdict in full on appeal.

The annual Benchmark Litigation Awards Gala recognizes the country's most distinguished litigators and firms for their work over the past 12 months. Read the full list of winners here.
