An enthusiastic violinist, Andrea lives with her husband and three children in Chevy Chase, Maryland.

Andrea focuses her practice on estate planning, estate and trust administration, and charitable matters. She regularly drafts a variety of estate planning documents, including trusts, wills, financial powers of attorney, medical powers of attorney, living wills, and instruments transferring assets into and out of trust. Before starting at IPB, Andrea worked as a law clerk, as a fiduciary litigator in New York, as in-house counsel for a US-owned, closely-held multinational in London, and as an estate planner with a boutique estate planning firm in Tysons Corner, Virginia.
