

Lateral Attorneys

IPB is always looking for exceptional individuals to join our team. In addition to our vigorous law school recruiting efforts, we regularly consider experienced attorneys with outstanding academic credentials, relevant practice experience, and a desire to provide unparalleled representation to sophisticated and demanding clients. If you have dedicated your career to practicing law according to the highest ethical and professional standards, please submit your resumé for consideration.