The Legal 500 has recognized IPB's Tax and Benefits & Compensation practices in its latest rankings of top US law firms.

Our Tax practice is described as "Uniquely positioned... with excellent technical knowledge and the ability to transform it into practical and feasible solutions," while our Benefits practice, "is well known for its focus on employer-side mandates... [and] is equally adept at assisting with health and welfare benefits and deferred compensation arrangements."

The Legal 500 uses a team of lawyers and journalists to conduct several months of market research each year by practice area to provide an objective analysis of the US legal market.
