IPB attorneys Benjamin L. Grosz and Jonathan L. Holbrook were nominated in the small firm category for the 2022 G. Hamilton Loeb Award for Pro Bono Excellence, bestowed by Washington Area Lawyers for the Arts (WALA).

Ben and Jon have donated their time to the organization, which supports members of the local arts community, offering multiple presentations of Tax Strategies for Creative Entrepreneurs.

Ivins, Phillips & Barker has frequently partnered with WALA for similar information sessions, and is proud of the pro bono contributions of all of our attorneys. Congratulations to Ben and Jon!
