Ivins, Phillips & Barker is pleased to announce that our Estate Planning Practice was recognized by Chambers & Partners in its just-released 2022 High Net Worth Guide. Chambers cites clients and industry sources who say, "Ivins is first-rate in a number of tax areas, including for private wealth;"

"They have very strong expertise on international, cross-border estate planning;" and

"Ivins, Phillips & Barker were timely, responsive and good value."

Our partners Brenda Jackson-Cooper and Carter Hood are also recognized individually. One Chambers source says that Brenda is very client-friendly and responsive. She was able to answer all of our questions. She worked within our budget and where research was needed, she was thorough." Another source called her "

very responsive and very collaborative," adding,

"I really enjoy working with her."

Chambers highlights Carter's technical skills and calls him, "

forward thinker who anticipates issues before they arise" and "a very good lawyer."
