Benjamin L. Grosz was featured guest speaker on a program for defined contribution retirement plan advisors and consultants, where he discussed hot topics and best practices for plan fiduciaries. Ben reviewed recent litigation and settlements regarding 401(k) and 403(b) plan fees and investment fund offerings, discussed recent relevant DOL regulations (including the DOL Fiduciary Rule, and fee disclosure regulations), and offered insight into fiduciary best practices, concluding with a lively Q&A discussion. The program was presented by Columbia Threadneedle Investments as part of its Platinum Retirement Advisor Call Series.
