IPB partner Benjamin L. Grosz and associate Jonathan L. Holbrook, along with Benjamin Takis of Tax-Exempt Solutions PLLC, gave a presentation on Tax Strategies to an audience of local entrepreneurs in creative fields on March 27 at Arlington Cultural Affairs' "Theatre on the Run." The presentation was part of the "Legal Issues for Creative Entrepreneurs" series of pro bono programs organized by Washington Area Lawyers for the Arts.

This is third year Ben has participated in this program, and the second year for Jon. The presentation aims to help those who pursue their art as a business to face the challenges of understanding how federal and state tax laws apply, and to help them avoid costly mistakes. IPB is proud to support pro bono efforts in our local communities.
