IPB associate Jonathan L. Holbrook co-taught a program on tax strategies as part of the Legal Issues for Creative Entrepreneurs Series sponsored by Washington Area Lawyers for the Arts (WALA). Jon was joined in the presentation by attorney Benjamin Takis (Founding Attorney, Takis Nonprofit Law PLLC). The program provided an overview of the federal income tax system from an individual and small business perspective, and included discussion of legal entity selection, payroll taxes and federal income tax issues stemming from the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. Ivins, Phillips & Barker is proud to support the pro bono efforts of our attorneys.
