

Ivins Attorneys Speak at 66th TEI Annual Conference

PRACTICE AREAS

Tax

Tax Controversies

November 2, 2011

Ivins Attorneys Speak on Foreign Currency Tax Issues at 66th Tax Executives Institute Annual Conference: Robert Stack and John Bates presented on international tax topics at the 66th Tax Executives Institute Annual Conference on November 2, 2011 in San Francisco. The title of the presentation was "Currency and Hedging: Avoiding Tax Casualties in the Currency War," and it covered planning opportunities, traps for the unwary, and areas of uncertainty in the taxation of transactions involving foreign currency and tax issues arising in connection with hedging foreign currency related business risks.