IPB Counsel Mindy Herzfeld authored the recently-released 12th edition of International Taxation in a Nutshell, a key resource for U.S. and international students and practitioners in the field of tax.

The 12th edition has been updated to reflect changes brought on by the 2017 TCJA, and discusses the interaction between U.S. tax regulations and global tax changes, including new OECD developments. It is already ranked in the Top 10 among international tax bestsellers.
