

Ben Grosz and Jon Holbrook Present on COVID-19 Tax Issues to Entrepreneurs

ATTORNEYS

Benjamin L. Grosz

Jon Holbrook

PRACTICE AREAS

Tax

Tax Planning & Advisory Services

May 15, 2020

IPB attorneys Benjamin L. Grosz and Jonathan L. Holbrook presented a webinar on tax issues facing artistic entrepreneurs during the coronavirus crisis. The session was hosted by Washington Area Lawyers for the Arts (WALA) as part of its "COVID-19 Response Webinar" pro bono series. The presentation and Q&A session discussed Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loans, the Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) program, stimulus payments, the delayed tax filing and payment deadlines, temporary IRA and 401(k) plan provisions, and tax credits for sick leave and family leave. The discussion also addressed broader income tax issues and opportunities facing entrepreneurs today.

Grosz and Holbrook regularly speak on income tax issues with WALA. Ivins, Phillips & Barker is proud to support the pro bono efforts of our attorneys.

The presentation is available here.