

Helna Klumpp Published in CFO.com re: Partnership Agreements

PRACTICE AREAS

International Tax

Tax

CFO.com

September 6, 2017

New IRS Rules Could Give Headaches to Partnerships

Ivins attorney Helna Klumpp's article entitled "New IRS Rules Could Give Headaches to Partnerships" was published in CFO.com.

"New rules poised to take effect next year will significantly alter the way the IRS audits partnerships and other 'pass-through' entities. To prepare, smart partners are preparing to go back to the drawing board and revise their governing documents to address various aspects of the new rules."