with Andrea Dykes & Carolyn Rogers

"Commentary by Linda Kotis, Andrea Dykes and Carolyn Rogers reviews the changes to and planning opportunities under Maryland's new elective share law, with an emphasis on using insurance in the estate plan to mitigate undesirable results when a spousal election is made. Versions of their newsletter appeared in the July/August 2020 issue of Probate & Property magazine and in Wealth Management's Trusts & Estates on August 11, 2020."
