Retailers and restaurateurs that operate in multiple states and countries face unique challenges in having to comply with local laws wherever they do business. All constantly face myriad labor and employment law-related issues that carry the potential for individual, class, and collective litigation. This webinar features legal experts from key jurisdictions around the globe who have extensive experience working with multi-state and multi-national retailers and restaurateurs. They will provide high-level, practical information and guidance on:

- Accommodating disabled employees
- Complying with wage and hour laws, including overtime and leave and break laws
- Conducting background checks without violating privacy laws
- Avoiding and managing union organizing

Who Should Attend?

The webinar is an invitation-only event exclusively for clients of ELA member law firms. The information presented will be of particular interest to:

- In-house Counsel
- Human Resources Professionals
- Corporate Executives and Business/Retail Owners

CLE/HRCI Credit

The Employment Law Alliance is not able to offer CLE/HRCI credits; however, for states that will accept it, a Certificate of Attendance will be posted with the other webinar materials immediately following the webinar for you to download as needed.
