

Polish Law Review Winter 2017

January 2017

- New regulations on the posting of workers for the provision of services
- The obligation to make business payments of over PLN 15,000 through a bank account
- Adopting management and supervisory board resolutions via means of distance communication
- The act of the out-of-court settlement of consumer disputes
- New rules for modifying public contracts, employee liability for damage caused to the employer
- Draft bill on real estate investment trusts
- Securing the interests of management and the company through D&O insurance
- Sea change in personal data protection rules, the sole shareholder as an employee of the limited liability company