

COVID-19: Patent and Trademark Office Updates as of June 8, 2020

June 8, 2020

Miller Canfield is actively tracking the current status of operations of numerous Patent and Trademark Offices (PTOs) around the world in the light of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. Below is a chart that shows the status of various countries' PTOs. This is current as of the date shown above and we will regularly update the "Current Status" as we receive new information. You can access this chart and other helpful and substantive updates at our COVID-19 Resource Center. Please contact the authors or your Miller Canfield attorney for assistance.
