Glenn E. Weinstein

Principal

Glenn Weinstein has extensive experience helping government and private clients with debt finance, secured lending, project finance and related areas of tax, governmental, real estate and securities law. Glenn's practice includes significant experience with sophisticated financing structures over a broad range of transactions.

Glenn has served as bond counsel, disclosure counsel, underwriter's counsel and trustee's counsel on tax-exempt bond issues for numerous state agencies and local governments in Illinois and other states. Glenn also assists Illinois local governments with tax increment finance and other economic development matters.

Glenn has handled matters involving general obligation, limited tax, revenue and alternate revenue source bonds, and conduit issues for airports, solid waste disposal facilities, industrial development projects, multi-family housing, universities, hospitals and charter schools. He has worked extensively with multi-modal financings, current refundings, forward purchase offerings, tender offers, reissuances of tax-exempt bonds, interest mode conversions and substitutions of credit facilities, trustees and remarketing agents.

Glenn is the former chair of the National Association of Bond Lawyers' Securities Law and Disclosure Committee and is a frequent panelist at NABL conferences. Formerly, Glenn served as a law clerk for the Honorable John A. Nordberg of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.
