Darrien Worth

Associate

Darrien Worth is an associate in the firm's Bankruptcy and Financial Services practice groups. He brings a wealth of experience from his previous career in financial services, which involved leading the direction of multi-billion dollar commercial and residential mortgage loan portfolios by performing servicing oversight and risk evaluation, strategy implementation, and managing client relationships.

Darrien graduated from Wayne State University Law School, where he was actively involved in various student organizations, including the Journal of Business Law, the Taft Transactional Law Competition, Moot Court, and the Black Law Students Association. He also earned a degree in finance from Michigan State University.

Darrien's strong background in finance, combined with his legal education, positions him well to assist clients with complex bankruptcy and financial services matters.
