J.G. Walker Mogen

Associate

Walker Mogen is an associate in the firm's Energy and Environmental practice group. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, where he gained valuable experience through his involvement with the Michigan Law School Environmental Crimes Project and his role as a summer law clerk at the Great Lakes Environmental Law Center.

Prior to attending law school, Walker worked as a paralegal specialist in the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. His commitment to public service was further demonstrated through his year of service as an AmeriCorps member, followed by his work as a coronavirus response grants administrator for the City of South Bend during the pandemic.

With a strong background in research, environmental law, and public service, Walker brings a well-rounded perspective to his work in energy and environmental matters.
