Alexander J. Clark

Principal
Troy Resident Director

Alexander J. Clark counsels clients with respect to all aspects of their transactional real estate needs and helps them achieve their goals in their real estate and business endeavors.

In particular, Alex concentrates his practice in corporate real estate law specializing in commercial leasing, acquisitions, dispositions, construction, and development. He also has considerable experience in the sale of REO properties. He serves his clients with practical and legal advice and guides them through the many phases and types of complex real estate transactions. Alex views the practice of law as a vocation of service and is committed to helping clients accomplish their goals and build their businesses.
