Anna Kowalczyk- Pogorzelska

Associate

Anna Kowalczyk-Pogorzelska is a licensed legal advisor (radca prawny) who specializes in real estate, commercial, and administration law.

Her experience includes advising a variety of foreign and Polish investors on site acquisition and financing, development of real properties, leasing land and buildings, as well as advising domestic and foreign banks, financial institutions, and investors on establishing financial instruments in different stages of the investment process. She has participated in many investment projects, including logistic distribution centers and projects in the public-private partnership sector. She also participated in privatizing state-owned entities and assisted in major due diligence projects, particularly focusing on real estate title checks, as part of several privatization and mergers and acquisition transactions.
