LeRoy L. Asher Jr.

Principal

LeRoy Asher Jr.'s practice focuses on real estate litigation with particular emphasis on title insurance defense, land use and zoning matters and construction disputes.

LeRoy has defended numerous commercial lenders in construction disputes of all types. He represents a number of national title insurance underwriters in all aspects of title insurance defense and has litigated and arbitrated numerous construction and real estate disputes. LeRoy also regularly appears before city, township, county and state agencies regarding real estate development projects and has litigated numerous zoning and land use cases to verdict.

He began his career as a trial attorney involved in complex commercial disputes, real estate partnership disputes, non-compete agreements, commercial landlord tenant matters, environmental claims, franchise litigation and zoning and land use disputes.

He has been recognized by Best Lawyers in America for Commercial Litigation and Real Estate Litigation since 2013.
