Yanping Wang

Principal

Yanping Wang is a member of Miller Canfield's Corporate and Transactions Group, focusing on international business relationships, cross-border mergers and acquisitions, and foreign direct investment in China and the United States.

Yanping assists clients from China in establishing and expanding business relationships, greenfield operations, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and strategic alliances. Her results-oriented approach derives from her experience in customs protection, employment, foreign exchange, intellectual property, and real estate law.

With respect to inbound investment to the United States, Yanping represents Chinese companies in the artificial intelligence manufacturing, automotive, automotive logistics, climate control, precision chemistry and real estate industries, focusing on greenfield projects and mergers and acquisitions. She also represents Chinese companies in connection with their IPO projects, as well as Chinese public companies listing their shares in the United States.

A prolific author, Yanping has published several books and articles regarding Chinese commercial contracts and property laws. She is also a frequent speaker on these topics and cross-border transactions.

Licensed in the United States and qualified in China, Yanping first studied law in China, where she practiced as a licensed attorney before coming to the United States to pursue a J.D. degree. For over 25 years, she has practiced in the U.S. and China, helping clients from Asia, Europe, and North America.
