

Natural Gas Exploration in Michigan - What you Need to Know and Why

December 7, 2011

Miller Canfield (Troy)

Please join Amy M. Johnston, Miller Canfield litigation lawyer, Charles F. Barker, Wayne State University, Department of Geology, and Linda Hensel, CPG, CP of Go To Consulting for lunch and a discussion on the benefits of hydraulic fracturing ("fracking") and associated natural gas exploration in Michigan.

You will hear from those with years of "hands-on" experience in the field and obtain valuable information on whether to support, invest and participate in this exciting and evolving market.

Discussion topics include:

- Myths and Facts of Hydraulic Fracking
- History and Development of Natural Gas Exploration Methodology
- Geological Background of Formations and Financial Yields on Related Formations
- Lease and Litigation Updates
