

Innovation for Growth: How can business and government ensure that innovation and technological advancements drive growth and employment?

October 10, 2012

U.S. - Poland Economic Forum in New York
(Organized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Poland)

The first ever US-Poland Business Week will be held in New York to deepen economic collaboration between United States and Poland. Business partners from both countries will attend a series of conferences and debates.

Click here for complete details.