

Webinar: New Developments in European Labour + Employment Law: What Employers Need to Know

February 21, 2013

Sponsored by Employment Law Alliance

Miller Canfield is the designated law firm for Michigan and Poland for the Employment Law Alliance, a network of the top labor + employment lawyers in the world.

Changes in labour and employment law across Europe continue to impact virtually all employers. These legal challenges are compounded by the fact that companies must comply with both EU directives as well as the laws in the countries in which they do business.
