Event Sponsor: BLR - Business & Legal Resources

Join Miller Canfield attorney, Lawrence Falbe, for an in-depth webinar on how the court's ruling in American Petroleum Institute v. EPA will impact your compliance obligations under the Definition of Solid Waste final rule.

You'll learn:

- Which of the four factors in the EPA's legitimacy test criteria stand—and which one the court vacated—and the practical impact of the court's ruling on differentiating between legitimate and sham recycling of hazardous secondary materials
- Which provisions of the Verified Recycler Exclusion remain –and what requirements replaced the vacated elements of that exclusion
- Whether hazardous secondary materials intended for recycling must still be managed as valuable commodities
- The regulatory fate of spent catalysts and other byproducts
- Expected next steps
