As the state government contemplates plans to reopen the economy, employers are considering necessary steps to bring employees back to the workplace and avoid legal missteps when they do.

Join Miller Canfield Employment and Labor Attorneys Megan Norris and Nhan Ho for this videoconference as they discuss the issues that are top-of-mind for employers, potential mistakes that could pose legal risks and give real-world examples of the problems companies are having as they restart operations. The discussion will include directives on reopening the workplace, preparing the workplace for employees to safely return, pay and benefits issues, layoffs, furloughs and call-backs.
