

NACUA Spring 2023 CLE Workshop - Maintaining Ethical Standards while Helping Your Client Through Polarized Times: Duties to your Institution, Its Constituents, the Public and the Profession

March 22 - 24, 2023

Westin San Diego Gaslamp Quarter

Event Sponsor: National Association of College and University Attorneys (NACUA)

Join Moderator Robert Zielinski at NACUA 2023. Panelists will explore how the increasing polarization surrounding discrimination issues may present ethical challenges for counsel and provide insights into their resolution. Topics to be explored include:

- The ethical obligation not to discriminate
- When ethical obligations regarding discrimination may be owed to persons other than your client and coworkers
- Avoiding ethical missteps relating to confidentiality and conflict of interest when wearing multiple hats and dealing with multiple campus constituencies
- Can discriminatory conduct or statements by a lawyer result in discipline from an ethics panel

Presenters

- Richard Uchica, General Counsel Colby College
- Jessica Price, Associate General Counsel, University of Oregon
