

Claims - They Seem So Simple. Right? (Federal Bar Association Western District of Michigan Bankruptcy Section Seminar)

July 27 - July 29, 2023

Miller Canfield attorney, Michael Moore, is among the panelists who will discuss "Claims - They Seem So Simple. Right?"

For over 40 years, the statutory provisions and rules regarding proofs of claim have remained, for the most part, unchanged. Yet the procedural aspects of claim adjudication remain subject to dispute. This crossover panel will address recent developments regarding proofs of claim, objections thereto, deadlines, applicable rules, and related notice/service requirements.
