

Energy Company Antitrust Litigation

Successfully represented leading North American energy producer in defense of state criminal antitrust claims that were resolved without any criminal conviction.