

Homicide Defense

Successfully represented a medical health care provider charged with murdering and poisoning patients at a Veteran's Hospital. After a six-month federal trial and extended litigation the case was dismissed.