

Business Litigation

- Represented a bankrupt entity seeking insurance coverage from a large, nationally prominent insurance conglomerate for thousands of policyholders who had warranty claims on extended service agreements that remained in force for up to 10 years.
- Represented a multi-national manufacturing company in connection with claims brought by an international customer alleging breach of contract relating to allegedly improperly manufactured equipment sold by the client.
- Represented a company engaged in the manufacture and sale of prefabricated homes in connection with a breach of contract action against Fannie Mae for failure to fund the venture, which failure caused catastrophic loss to the client.
- Successfully represented a fidelity bond carrier in connection with claims by several banks for losses resulting from millions of dollars in fraudulent loans made by bank employees.