

Export Controls Compliance for an Encryption Hardware Company

Assisted a U.S. start-up specializing in end-to-end encryption hardware with implementing an export control compliance program as required by venture capital investor for funding round.