

Underwriter's Counsel

Represented investment banking firms in connection with various tax-exempt bond issues including the preparation and review of offering documents and bond purchase agreements and the participation in due diligence process.