

Real Estate and Development Transactions

---

Complex commercial real estate and development transactions including construction of office, retail and industrial projects, acquisition of vacant and improved land; condominium development; entity formation; real estate financing including "securitized loans" and commercial leasing.