

Criminal Investigation

Successfully represented a physician investigated for homicide involving a patient. All potential charges were declined.