

Savings Institution Proxy Contest/Related Litigation

Represented a group of significant shareholders of a $500 million-plus savings institution in the Upper Peninsula in a proxy contest and related litigation in which they successfully sought representation on the institution's board of directors.