

Class Actions - Hospital System

---

Defended a hospital system against allegations that its charges for providing medical records in response to subpoenas were excessive, in violation of the state Consumer Protection Act and Patients' Bill of Rights. The state Supreme Court ordered the complaint dismissed for failure to state a valid claim.