

Miller Canfield's Gayla Houser Elected to CUSBA Board of Directors

November 26, 2012

The law firm of Miller Canfield announces that Gayla M. Houser, director of business development (Troy, Mich. office), has been elected to a one-year term on the board of directors of the Canada-United States Business Association (CUSBA). CUSBA is a non-profit, non-partisan, issues-oriented business association formed in 1992.

"Our goal is to become the premier voice of cross-border businesses and to promote the common business interests of Canada and the U.S.," said Board President Mark High. Comprised of business leaders and stakeholders from both sides of the border, CUSBA members capitalize on international business opportunities through speakers, panels, special events and educational programs hosted throughout the year.

She received her B.A. from Wayne State University.
