

Miller Canfield Opens New Toronto Office Focusing on U.S. and International Law

---

September 5, 2013

Miller Canfield, an international law firm headquartered in the U.S., announced today that it has opened a new office on the 11th floor of the Bay Adelaide Centre in downtown Toronto. The office will focus on advising Toronto lawyers and their clients on legal issues outside of Canada, specifically relating to business in the U.S., China, Mexico and Poland, where the firm has offices.

“We will provide Toronto-based support on legal issues involving the U.S. and the rapidly expanding markets in China, Mexico and Poland,” said Michael P. McGee, CEO of Miller Canfield. “It’s a natural fit. These are locations where the firm regularly services clients in the manufacturing, energy, high-tech and finance industries and where Canadian companies are investing and doing business. The office also will facilitate introducing our international clients to leading Canadian firms.”

The address of the new office is:

Bay Adelaide Centre
333 Bay Street, 11th floor
Toronto, ON M5H 2T4

Contacts of the Toronto initiative include U.S.-based partners of the firms:

- Frederick Acomb (Acomb@MillerCanfield.com | +1.313.496.7607) - International Dispute Resolution
- Joseph Vernon (Vernon@MillerCanfield.com | +1.313.496.7669) – Commercial Litigation
- Richard Walawender (Walawender@MillerCanfield.com | +1.313.496.7628) - Corporate, Securities, International law

Tracing its roots to 1852, Miller Canfield is one of the oldest law firms in the world. The firm has 17 offices -- in the U.S., China, Mexico, Poland and Canada.