

Larry Woodard to Present at PLI 16th Annual Commercial Real Estate Institute in Chicago on October 28

September 30, 2014

Miller Canfield lawyer Larry Woodard will discuss real estate litigation at the Practising Law Institute's 16th Annual Commercial Real Estate Institute in Chicago on October 28, 2014. The event will take place at the University of Chicago Gleacher Center.

Woodard's presentation – "Real Estate Litigation: A Toolkit for Transactional Lawyers" – will take place on the second day of the conference at 2:15 pm. He and attorney Nick Helmer, Jr., will address pre-litigation issues and strategies for landlord/tenant, mortgage loan and other real estate disputes, the discovery process and how transactional lawyers play a role in resolving disputes.

Those interested in attending the presentation and the rest of the ACI National Forum can register at <http://goo.gl/m8z6i5>.

Larry Woodard is a commercial real estate attorney that is as experienced and proficient in the courtroom as well as at the closing table. He provides his clients seamless counsel in a wide array of transactional and business settings, as well as tactical oversight of litigation strategy. He has represented Fortune 500 companies, developers, regional and national banks, institutional investors, special servicers, units of local government, REITs, contractors, landlords, tenants, condominium associations, receivers and real estate brokers in the development, management, financing, leasing, zoning, acquisition and disposal of their real estate interests.