

Garrett Hondorp Joins Miller Canfield's eDiscovery and Legal Tech Services Team

December 19, 2014

The law firm of Miller Canfield announces that Garrett Hondorp has joined the firm as a Litigation Support Specialist. He will work in the Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo offices, assisting the firm's eDiscovery and Legal Tech Services team.

Hondorp was an application specialist for the software company that created Relativity and is a Relativity Certified Administrator (RCA). He also has experience as a technical adviser with a litigation support and eDiscovery services company.

He received his B.A. (2007) from Indiana University.