August 17, 2016

Joseph Infante, a principal in Miller Canfield's Grand Rapids office, has been named among Grand Rapids Business Journal's "40 Under Forty."

Infante was selected as a business leader in the community, not only for his outstanding work in law, and in particular craft beverage law, but also for the outstanding work he does for Hospice of West Michigan. This year, he and his wife Niki co-chaired the successful premiere fundraiser, Hospice of Michigan Barley, BBQ & Beats, which raised nearly $250,000.

Grand Rapids Business Journal received a record number of 395 nominations, nominating 249 individual candidates to be considered for the recognition. Infante will be profiled in a special magazine supplement in GRBJ's Oct. 17, 2016, issue.
